

Participants

North Carolina and Sweden: Best Practices in Early Childhood Education

September 6-14, 2003 & May 18-28, 2005

2003

Meredith Henderson, Education Initiative Program Manager, The Center for International Understanding

Debra Torrence, Educational Planning & Program Consultant, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, FPG Child Development Institute

Camille Catlett, Research Investigator, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, FPG Child Development Institute

Vickie Ansley, Area Coordinator, Southwestern Child Development Commission

Mary Bushnell, Executive Director, North Carolina Child Care Resource and Referral Network

Cornelia Cincilei, Director, Step-by-Step Moldova

Beverly Cree, Instructor, UNC-Wilmington

Pat Creighton, Training Specialist, Buncombe County Child Care Services

Karen DeBord, Associate Professor/Extension Specialist, NC State University

Janice Edgerton, Project Manager, Region A Partnership for Children

Pat Henke, Education Coordinator, Asheville City Schools

Alison Parfitt, Teacher, Mission St. Joseph's Child Development Center

Jacque Penick, Program Director, Transition to Kindergarten, Asheville City Schools/Buncombe County Schools/Smart Start of Buncombe County

Victoria Robertson, Director, Montessori Learning Center

June Smith, Executive Director, Region A Partnership for Children

Russ Smith, Montessori Center Manager, Mountain Area Child & Family Center

Gerry Stamm, Early Childhood Instructor, Haywood Community College

Catherine Taylor, Teacher, Bell's School for People Under Six

Reiko Uzuhashi, Kobe Womens University